Step 3: Tell Us About Your Relevant Experience - Work, Voluntary, and/or Other:

Enter in chronological order (most recent first) details of your employment including name of employer, job title, nature of your job, and job achievements. Please enter details of any voluntary work, hobbies or other practical experience. Outline the relevant skills and knowledge you have gained from your employment.

Step 4: Complete the Position Statement:

Please answer the following question:

Why would you be a good candidate for the Native Language Instructors' Program?

When writing your position statement, you should make links between the past and the present using relevant examples of life and work experiences and achievements that explain/demonstrate your strengths and interests. Your statement should also look in to the future – identifying your learning aims and objectives and your future aspirations relating to language revitalization, policy/curriculum writing, and translating/interpreting.

It is important that the position statement is your own words, and that you make it clear when you are drawing on other peoples' ideas and theories. For more advice about avoiding plagiarism and referencing your work, please see <http://library.lakeheadu.ca>

Step 5: Sign and Date Your Form

Please read the following declaration and complete the signature and date fields below.
