Purpose

To describe a process which reflects due diligence when hiring and replacing staff in order to ensure all financial and organizational implications are carefully studied and considered.

Scope

This policy applies to all non-union positions in the University unless otherwise determined by the Board of Governors pursuant to section 12 of the Lakehead University Act.

Policy Guidelines

1. The University aims to recruit and employ the best suited and qualified staff
2. Hiring supervisors shall conduct an operational requirements assessment once a vacancy occurs or is expected to occur. This assessment will provide an opportunity to review current departmental processes, determine personnel requirements, and reimagine the way in which work is done within the department, with the ultimate objective of maximizing service performance while optimizing resources. This operational assessment shall include, but not be limited to, the following considerations:
  - a. The necessity to continue the position with the same list of responsibilities
  - b. Continuing the position with a modified list of responsibilities

- c. Concluding the vacated position and creating a new position that is relevant to current requirements
  - d. Determining that the vacant position's activities are largely redundant
  - e. Reassign responsibilities among other departmental positions in order to effectively utilize resources
3. Prior to submitting requests for new positions, the hiring supervisor shall demonstrate a departmental review has determined the duties envisioned for a new position cannot be handled within the existing staff complement.
4. Requests to hire for new or existing vacancies shall follow the established approval processes and documentation requirements outlined by the Office of Human Resources.
5. All permanent positions and contract positions of greater than one year in duration shall be advertised internally and/or externally for a minimum of 5 business days. The hiring supervisor shall consult with the Office of Human Resources to determine an appropriate advertising strategy. This one-year threshold is considered to a minimum. Positions of shorter duration can be advertised at the discretion of the hiring supervisor.
6. The cost of advertising for recruiting purposes shall be charged to the hiring department.
7. All recruitment practices shall be conducted in a fair and transparent manner, guided by established best practices and the University's commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.
8. Expenses incurred for transporting a candidate to a University campus will be subject to the provisions and limitations set out in the Travel & Hospitality Expense Policy.
9. Typically, familial relations shall not be employed in the same department in the relative positions of employee and supervisor. If this situation arises due to a family relation being the most qualified and appropriate candidate for a position, an alternate supervision plan will be established, delegating all functions of the hiring supervisor's responsibilities to another supervisor who would not be in a conflict of interest. This alternate supervision plan shall be established by the hiring supervisor in consultation with the Office of Human Resources.

Review Period: 5 years;

Next Review Period: 2025-2026;
