

Political Clubs on Campus

Category: External Relations;

Jurisdiction: Vice President, External Relations;

Approval Authority: Executive Team;

Established on: May 30, 1984;

Amendments: November 20, 2007.

In order to accommodate students who may be interested in forming a political club (affiliated with a recognized Canadian political party) on the Lakehead University campus and who would be seeking permission to use the University's name, the following applies:

- University students wishing to form political clubs on campus that use the name "Lakehead University" and are affiliated with recognized Canadian political parties, must apply for permission to use the name "Lakehead University" to identify their club.
 - Application shall be in writing and directed to the Vice-Provost Student Affairs.
 - Permission to use the "Lakehead University" name, when granted, will be subject to the condition that in the opinion of the University, the use of the name is not detrimental or unseemly to the good name of the University.
 - Such clubs do not have permission to use the University's official crest or registered logo, since these constitute an important component of the "corporate image" we attempt to portray to prospective students and other audiences.
