

We want to congratulate you on your upcoming graduation! If you are looking for an excellent opportunity to start your mental health career with an established agency, we hope you'll consider joining the team at Marion County Health & Human Services (MCHHS).

Based in Salem, Oregon, we offer a wide variety of programs and services to our community. As a member of the MCHHS Behavioral Health team, you will receive training, invaluable experience, an opportunity to increase your clinical skills, and free licensure supervision.

In addition to a comprehensive benefits package, Mental Health Specialists, Licensed Mental Health Specialists and Family Intervention Therapists receive the following retention bonus, prorated based on FTE:

- $3,000 bonus after six months of continuous employment
- $3,000 bonus after twelve months of continuous employment

Additionally, we offer tuition assistance for employees interested in pursuing a profession in behavioral health (qualifying positions & licensures only).

Up to $7,500 to reimburse for tuition and/or educational expenditures.

Are you looking to move to the beautiful Pacific Northwest? Salem is located south of Portland and is part of Marion County, which stretches from the Willamette River to the Cascade Mountains.

We offer up to $3,000 in reimbursement of moving expenses and a $3,000 relocation bonus to those who relocate to Oregon.
