

We're hiring Social Workers

At Vancouver Coastal Health (VCH), we have dynamic opportunities for social workers to work on interdisciplinary teams across various practice areas and specialty units. Whether you are newly graduated or an experienced social worker, there are many areas of practice to grow your career and skills.

With comprehensive health care benefits and diverse work location options, now is the time to join our team.

We have opportunities for social workers in:

NEW GRAD PROGRAM

VCH is pleased to offer new graduate social work support and learning opportunities to help you enhance your confidence and competence as you transition to independent practice. As a new graduate, you will have access to on-call support with clinical skills and decision-making, new grad education sessions and supernumerary buddy shifts to support your learning needs.

Our support team for new graduates includes access to a dedicated new grad SW educator in addition to the entire team of managers, practice leaders, regional educator, mental health and substance use clinical resource therapist, site educators, and, of course, your co-workers.
