Rationale	Rationale 1. The addition of two hours of lecture per week is intended to set aside time and classroom space for occasional meetings of all current internship students and the supervising instructor. 2. The registration limitations in the "Notes" line ensure that only students with an appropriate level of experience in the Media Studies program enroll in the internship courses. 3. The due date information is meant to emphasize the time-sensitivity of the enrolment/application process in order to mitigate problems associated with late registrations. 4. The addition of the "Note" line to the description for MDST 3930 is meant to provide students with important information about enrolment eligibility and application procedures for the internship program.
