1.	New Degree	BA.HIST.WEB - BA (History Major) Online
----	------------	---

Justification

Brief Rationale (full found in attached documentation): The proposed creation of an additional mode of delivery for the BA History program is in response to both the Academic Plan (growth and online) and to address the fact that students are already completing the degree online. Currently, CEDL and the Department of History already offer the required number of courses each year to deliver the program. The creation of a degree option would better allow for planning its on-campus and online curriculum, improve the tracking of students and better provide program advising, etc, and allow the department to grow its BA major numbers by reaching out to a new (and untapped) groups of learners.
