

MEMORANDUM

To: Barbara H. Eccles, Secretary of Senate
From: Dr. Douglas Ivison - Chair, Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
Senate Meeting Date: 16 April 2018
Subject: Senate Teaching and Learning Committee Report

The Senate Teaching and Learning Committee (STLC) met on March 6..

H. Murchison gave a presentation on Experiential Learning, discussing the Ministry definition of the term (as well as other definitions) and the context in which Experiential Learning is being prioritized and assessed. She reviewed the university's ongoing efforts to track and support existing Experiential Learning opportunities, and to ensure that all students have access to Experiential Learning as part of their programs.

The Teaching Awards sub-committee reported that it has begun discussing the creation of new teaching awards to complement the existing Contribution to Teaching Award and Distinguished Instructor Award.

The Writing and Communication sub-committee reported that it has begun developing the creation of student writing awards.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Douglas Ivison
Chair, Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
