

MEMORANDUM

To: Barbara H. Eccles, Secretary of Senate
From: Dr. John O'Meara - Chair, Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
Senate Meeting Date: January 23, 2017
Subject: Senate Teaching and Learning Committee Report

The Senate Teaching and Learning Committee (STLC) met several times through summer and fall 2016.

STLC's Accessibility Subcommittee has worked extensively since spring 2016 to review the current policy on Accommodations for Students with Disabilities, as part of the regular review cycle, and to ensure that the policy is compliant the requirements of the Ontario Human Rights Commission.

The Subcommittee includes members from across the University, including faculty members in a range of programs, Human Resources, and Student Accessibility Services. The Director of the Human Rights and Equity has given input, and has reviewed the draft. The University's General Counsel has also reviewed the draft.

At the November 30 2016 meeting of the Senate Teaching and Learning Committee the following motion was approved:

The Senate Teaching and Learning Committee moves that the revisions to the Policy on Accommodations for Students with Disabilities be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. John O'Meara
Chair, Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
Dean, Faculty of Education
