

Ann Dumyn, Vice-Chair
Elected Member,
Board of Governors

Ann Dumyn is a retired bank executive who also worked with a world-class engineering company and held director and officer positions in private and public resource sector companies in Canada and the US. Ann retired from the Bank of Montreal in 2000 after a 32-year career starting in Sioux Lookout through progressive management positions culminating as Director, Aboriginal Banking. Between 2000 and 2004 Ann was Vice-President, Aboriginal and Northern Affairs with SNC-Lavalin Inc. Ann then went on to work with an assortment of resource based companies primarily involved in the acquisition, exploration and development of base and precious metals properties. Ann is currently corporate director for an Arizona mining company based in Utah, exploring for gold, silver and copper.

Amongst other not-for profit volunteer positions, Ann served on the Lakehead University Board of Governors between 2004 and 2010; The Professional Staff Pension Plan, Lakehead University between 2005 and 2010; and as Vice-Chair of the Royal Ontario Museum between 2005 and 2011. Since 2014 Ann has been a member of the Board of Directors of the YMCA of Owen Sound Grey Bruce.

Ann is a graduate of the ICD Corporate Governance College, Directors Education Program (February 2006), Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto.