

David Elliott
Lieutenant Governor
in Council Member,
Board of Governors

David Elliott practices law in Kenora, Ontario and is a graduate of Queen's University, holding an Honours Bachelor of Arts and a Bachelor of Law Degree. He has been a member of the Law Society of Ontario since 1978.

He is a sitting Small Claims Court Justice and has taught film studies at both Queen's University, as a teaching assistant, and at Lakehead University through the extension department.

He has held prosecutorial positions with the Provincial Crown Attorney's Office, the Ministries of Natural Resources, Transportation and Occupational Health and Safety and the Ontario Human Rights Commission. He also served as a Federal agent prosecutor with the Public Prosecution Services of Canada.

He has worked extensively in the field of child welfare law and is currently a consultant and agent counsel for the Kenora-Rainy River Districts Child and Family Services.