1. Online Course Evaluations for Online Courses

On December 14, 2012, the committee struck a sub-committee to consider the development of a motion to conduct online student evaluations of teaching for courses predominantly delivered online. We expect that the motion will be brought to Senate for approval this year.

2. Regulations

The committee is considering drafting new regulations on bonus assignments and field trips outside of class time to ensure all students have equal access to bonus marks or extra learning opportunities. The committee is also revisiting the guideline on timely feedback to students.

Respectfully submitted,
Jane Nicholas
