

MEMORANDUM

To: Barbara H. Eccles, Secretary of Senate
From: Dr. Douglas Ivison - Chair, Senate Teaching and Learning Committee
Senate Meeting Date: December 2, 2019
Subject: Senate Teaching and Learning Committee Report

The Senate Teaching and Learning Committee met on November 20 and received updates from its various subcommittees.

The Teaching Awards subcommittee will shortly be assessing the eligibility of nominees for the Teaching Innovation Award, and soliciting dossiers from eligible nominees.

Nominations for the Teaching Support Award (created at the last meeting of Senate) are due on December 15.

The 2019 Teaching and Learning Symposium took place from November 11-15 on both campuses. Events were generally well attended. At the Teaching Awards reception on November 13 this year's winner of the Distinguished Instructor Award, Dr. Camillo Lento, Associate Professor in the Faculty of Business Administration, gave an engaging and thought-provoking lecture.

Respectfully submitted,

Dr. Douglas Ivison
Chair, Teaching and Learning Committee
