Orientation	September 5-9, 2009
Orientation for Education	September 14, 2009

ACADEMIC NOTES:

Students should register for both fall and winter courses at the same time.

Courses may be held at different times within the published start and end dates; however, students are expected to abide by the published deadline dates, unless otherwise notified. Exceptions to the published start and end dates will be indicated on the Course Timetable.

Education dates are restricted to students in the four- and five-year concurrent Education programs and the one-year Professional program.

In all courses instructors must not give any form of test other than laboratory and drafting tests in the last 5 days of classes without prior approval of the faculty dean. (See also Study Periods.)

In all courses instructors must not give any form of test or assignment during the study period from the end of classes to the beginning of the formal examination period. (NB: performance juries may be held during this time.)

See the Fees section of the calendar, page 12, for information regarding Payment of Fees, Refund of Fees and Miscellaneous Fees.

Spring and/or Summer courses with insufficient enrolment will be cancelled 1 week prior to the first day of classes. For courses shorter than 3 weeks, no withdrawal without academic penalty will be allowed after the second day of classes.
