

GRADflix is an opportunity for graduate students to showcase their research through a one-minute (60-second) creative video. This competition allows students to broaden their communication skills, expand their network, gain greater exposure for their research, and compete for a monetary prize.

Graduate Students are eligible to participate in this competition at any stage of their research as long as they are actively enrolled in a graduate program.

Please register by submitting this form via email to admin.grad@lakeheadu.ca no later than February 6, 2026

Date of Competition: Monday, February 23, 2026 - 2:00-4:00 pm

Student Name: _____

Supervisor: _____

Department: _____ Campus: Thunder Bay      Orillia

Level of study (check one):      Masters  Doctorate       Student ID: _____

E-mail address: _____

Title of Presentation: _____

---

Student Signature

---

Supervisor/Graduate Coordinator Signature

Date

Date

Supervisor Disclosure: I approve the aforementioned student to present above entitled work in GRADflix competition at Lakehead University.

- The GRADflix presentation must represent the research of the presenter only. The presentation of the research, will not affect any preexisting rights regarding its use at all times prior to and following the competition except as stated below.
- Due to the nature of the competition, we will not ask judges, reviewers, staff or the audience to agree to or sign non-disclosure statements. If your research is being/has been conducted under contract with an outside sponsor, please discuss the related contractual terms of confidentiality and intellectual property with your supervisor before presenting your research project.
- All public sessions of the competition are open to the public at large. Any and all of these public sessions may be broadcast to interested persons through media which may include the internet.
- Any data or information presented or divulged in public sessions by presenters should be considered information that will likely enter the public realm, and presenters should not assume any right of confidentiality in any data or information discussed, divulged or presented in these sessions. This means if your research includes confidential or culturally sensitive material you should think very carefully about how you can present this information. We advise that you discuss your competition entry with your supervisor(s) before entering the GRADflix .
- The Faculty of Graduate Studies and Lakehead University may make photocopies, photographs, videotapes and/or audiotapes of the presentations or material prepared for use in presentation to be posted on Lakehead University websites and other publications for promotion of the GRADflix competition and future GRADflix competitions.
- Please note that videos of the finalists of the GRADflix competition may be posted following the event on YouTube, Lakehead University websites and other Lakehead social media platforms to acknowledge the success of the participants and as promotional material for future GRADflix competitions at Lakehead.