

SOCIAL INNOVATION FORUM

MONDAY, MARCH 5, 2018

Research & Innovation
WEEK MARCH 2 - MARCH 9, 2018
Lakehead University

The Social Innovation Forum at Lakehead University will open Lakehead University's 2018 Research and Innovation Week, "Connections." The Forum is designed to showcase innovative approaches to community-university partnerships and the impact such connections can have on social justice and innovation. The day's events will create a dialogue that will address how Lakehead University's research capacity can be utilized to inform and address challenges confronting community organizations and our city. This public event is expected to draw local organizations and researchers, as well as leading research experts who are passionate about the power of community-university partnerships as a vehicle for societal change.
