

Department of Gender and Women's Studies

Feminist Dialogues Speaker Series

“We need to fight and have a battle every day!”: Queer Perceptions of Social Justice in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Mehmet Yavuz's (Ph.D. ABD) research interests include divided/ post-peace-agreement societies, violence, peacebuilding, social justice, 2SLGBTQIA+, queer theory, media and peacebuilding, social movements, conflict transformation, Cyprus, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Northern Ireland, and Turkey. Mehmet has published numerous articles in the following journals: Peace and Conflict Studies, Journal for Justice and Peace, Journal of Ethnic Studies, Interdisciplinary Justice Research, and Canadian Journal of Criminology and Criminal Justice. Mehmet's doctoral research investigates queer people's perceptions and experiences of social justice and peacebuilding in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Date: December 6th, 2023 (Tuesday) @ 11:00 am

Location (Virtual): Zoom

Meeting ID: 917 5970 8087 | Passcode: 894042

Lakehead
UNIVERSITY

Department of
Gender and Women's Studies