

A brief summary of WOME 2111-WA (Special topics course taught winter 2020):

Feminist Anti-Violence Activisms: Prisons, Policing and the Carceral State

In this course we will explore feminist anti-violence activism through a focus on elements of the carceral state. How have prisons, policing and practices of criminalization been centred in feminist struggles for gender, racial, anti-capitalist and anti-colonial justice historically and today?

**Please note that the course outline for this course is unavailable at this time.*