

Anishinaabemowik Indigenous Language Teacher Diploma – Lakehead University’s Language Instructor’s Program has been providing fluent speakers an alternative path to teacher certification since 1981.

The Indigenous Language Teacher Diploma program provides fluent speakers of Algonquian languages (Ojibwe, Cree, or Oji-Cree) with the skills and credentials to teach Native Language as a Second Language in primary/secondary schools in Ontario. Upon successful completion of the ILTD program students will be recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers.
