CONFEDERATION COLLEGE

Aboriginal Law & Advocacy → Honours Bachelor of Arts (HBA) Political Science or Bachelor of Arts (BA) Political Science

Offered at the Thunder Bay Campus

The Political Science degree programs examine the theory and practice of state and government. Politics plays a role in every facet of our daily lives, and through this program, you will learn about the various aspects of Canadian politics, including the federal system, voting behaviour, political parties and pressure groups. You will also explore areas of comparative politics and public policy, learning about political systems in Europe, the Americas, Africa, Asia, and communist areas. In the field of political theory, you will examine the various benefits we seek through political organization, such as freedom, well-being, equality, and justice, and how best to achieve and safeguard them.

CONFEDERATION COLLEGE

Child & Youth Worker, Developmental Service Worker, Social Service Worker, Native Family Youth Worker, Native Child & Family Worker
→ Lakehead Honours Bachelor of Social Work (HBSW)

Offered at the Thunder Bay Campus

The Social Work program at Lakehead concentrates on the social service needs of northern populations. It is an innovative program based on a holistic or ecological view of social work practice. Our approach stresses the social worker's role in providing and facilitating a comprehensive range of helping initiatives which relate to the client's needs as a whole person.

This requires skill in an integrated practice method where students learn through both classroom courses and field practice experiences in human service agencies and community service organizations under the supervision of a qualified field instructor.

Confederation College Child & Youth Worker,
Confederation College Developmental Service Worker,
Confederation College Social Service Worker,
Confederation College Native Family Youth Worker, or Confederation College Native Child & Family Worker
→ Lakehead Honours Bachelor of Social Work (HBSW)

The Bachelor's degree in Social Work is recognized by the profession as the first-level professional degree. Lakehead's Honours Bachelor of Social Work program is fully accredited by the Canadian Association of Schools of Social Work, which is the standard-setting body for Canadian Social Work programs.

Program Information

Students who have completed the first and second years of the program are required to formally reapply to Enrolment Services - Undergraduate Admissions to be admitted into the professional years of the program (third and fourth years). Each student must reapply so that professional and academic suitability may be determined by the Admissions Committee of the Department of Social Work. Admission decisions are based on academic standing, a written personal statement, references, as well as work and volunteer experiences.

Admission Requirements

Graduates from Confederation College's 3-year Child & Youth Worker diploma program, with a minimum overall 70% or 3.0 GPA average, and "P" (or 3.0) Field Placements, may transfer into year 2 of the Honours Bachelor of Social Work (HBSW) program.

Graduates from Confederation College's 2-year Developmental Service Worker or Social Service Worker diploma programs, with a minimum overall 70% or 3.0 GPA average, and "P" (or 3.0) Field Placements, may transfer into year 2 of the Honours Bachelor of Social Work (HBSW) program.

Graduates from Confederation College's 2-year Native Family Youth Worker or Native Child & Family Worker diploma programs, with a minimum overall 70% or 3.0 GPA average, may transfer into year 1 (and receive 3 full course equivalent transfer credits) of the Honours Bachelor of Social Work (HBSW) program.

Careers

Career opportunities for graduates of the Lakehead University Social Work program are varied; some enter practice immediately after graduation and others pursue graduate studies in social work at the Master's level. Opportunities exist in various settings where social work practice takes place. These include child and family services, mental health, corrections, health services, schools and services for the aged. Career advancement opportunities are available to those who qualify in the areas of supervision, program planning, administration, consultation and university teaching.

Applications to this program can be made with a 105D Application form obtained from the Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC): ouac.on.ca

Early Childhood Education

→ Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Honours Bachelor of Arts (HBA) Sociology or Psychology with Concurrent Education (P/I)

Offered at the Thunder Bay Campus

Through this articulation agreement, you will transition into a double degree program at Lakehead in which you will study Education at the primary/junior level along with a major in either Sociology or Psychology.

If you choose a Sociology major, you will take a range of courses that will give you a background in at least three core curriculum subjects taught in the Primary-Junior grades. As a Sociology student, you will examine all aspects of life related to the fact that humans live in groups. Issues related to health and illness, crime and deviance, popular culture, social change, economy and society, schooling, social inequality, prejudice and discrimination are just some of the topics analyzed in our courses.

If you choose a Psychology major, you will take a range of courses that will give you a background in at least three core curriculum subjects taught in the Primary-Junior grades. Your studies in Psychology will be concerned with understanding and influencing the thoughts, feelings, emotions, and behaviour of individuals. You will explore questions such as: How do we perceive? How do we learn and think? What motivates us? What developmental stages do we go through? How is every individual unique? How are we influenced by our social and physical environments?

Lakehead's Education program has a heavy emphasis on the hands-on instructional teaching approach and features an experiential program component that is devoted to the dynamic and progressive nature of our professors. Lakehead's Faculty of Education is a leader in Aboriginal, environmental and outdoor education. You will be exposed to real-world challenges, allowing you to create real and inspiring educational situations.

Teaching Placements

Your final two years of study, also called your "Professional Program," will take place exclusively within the Faculty of Education and will qualify you for teacher certification by the Ontario College of Teachers (OCT). The final two years of your program include courses and 25 days of student teaching in each of the four semesters. First year placements are completed in local boards and second year placements may take place in one of the many School Boards across Ontario that are affiliated with Lakehead University's Faculty of Education. The Faculty of Education will do its best to consider student placement requests.

Confederation College Early Childhood Education

→ Lakehead Bachelor of Arts (BA) Sociology or Psychology with Concurrent Education (P/I)

→ Lakehead Honours Bachelor of Arts (HBA) Sociology or Psychology with Concurrent Education (P/I)

Admission Requirements

Graduates from Confederation College's 2-year Early Childhood Education diploma program with a minimum overall 75% or 3.5 GPA average, may transfer into year 2 of the BA Sociology, BA Psychology, HBA Sociology or HBA Psychology programs with Concurrent Education.

Careers

The broad-based set of skills developed by a graduate with these degrees can be applied to any number of careers. Most graduates will pursue their goal of becoming a teacher within a public, private, religious, or other school setting. Many travel abroad and see the world! Some will go on to graduate studies at the Masters and PhD levels. Others will enter the workforce, entering into a variety of careers in the government and private sector where skills of communication, organization, and education theory and practise are valued.
