 - 4) One member appointed by the council of The Corporation of the City of Fort William for a term not to exceed three years.
 - 5) One member appointed by the council of The Corporation of the City of Port Arthur for a term not to exceed three years. 1965, c. 54, s. 7.
8. --- (1) Of the persons named in paragraph 2 of section 7, the first eight persons shall hold office for a period of three years, the next eight shall hold office for a period of two years and the remaining eight shall hold office for a period of one year, and, as the term of any such person expires, the vacancy shall be filled by election by the Board, and such election shall be for such a term as the Board may determine by by-law, and so on from time to time.

(2) Of the persons first named by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the first person named shall hold office for a period of three years, the second person named shall hold office for a period of two years and the third person named shall hold office for a period of one year, and, as the term of any such person expires, the vacancy shall be filled by the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and such appointment shall be for a period of three years, and so on from time to time.

(3) Where a vacancy on the board occurs before the term of office for which a member has been appointed or elected has expired, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner and by the same authority as the member whose membership is vacant was appointed or elected, as the case may be, and the member so appointed or elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the member whose membership is vacant. 1965, c. 54, s. 8.

9. All members of the board are eligible for re-appointment or re-election.
10. The Board shall elect a chairman from among its members for such period as may be determined by the Board. 1965, c. 54, s. 10.
11. After thirty days notice to any member of the Board, the Board may, by resolution passed at a meeting of the Board by at least two-thirds of the total members of the Board, declare vacant the seat of such member. 1965, c. 54, s. 11.
12. Except as to such matter by this Act specifically assigned to the Senate, the government, conduct, management and control of the University of its property, revenues, expenditures, business and affairs are vested in the Board, and the Board has all powers necessary or convenient to perform its duties and achieve the objects and purposes of the University, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, power,
 - a) to appoint and remove the President and the vice-presidents, if any;
 - b) to appoint, promote and remove the heads of all faculties and schools, the senior administrative officers of the University, the teaching staff of the University, and all such other officers and employees as the Board deems necessary or expedient for the purpose of the University, but no person shall be appointed, promoted or removed as head of a faculty or school, as a senior administrative officer or as a member of the teaching staff of the University, except on the recommendation of the President;
 - c) to fix the number, duties, salaries and other emoluments of the officers, agents and employees of the University;
 - d) to appoint an executive committee and such other committees as it deems advisable, and to delegate to any such committee any of its powers;
 - e) to establish such advisory bodies as it sees fit;
 - f) to borrow money on the credit of the University in such amount, on such terms and from such persons, firms, or corporations, including chartered banks, as may be determined by the Board;

- g) to make, draw and endorse promissory notes or bills of exchange;
- h) to hypothecate, pledge, charge or mortgage all or any part of the property of the University to secure any money so borrowed or for the fulfilment of the obligations incurred by it under any promissory note or bill of exchange signed, made, drawn or endorsed by it;
- i) to issue bonds, debentures and obligations on such terms and conditions as it may decide, and pledge or sell such bonds, debentures and obligations for such sums and at such prices as it may decide, and mortgage, charge, hypothecate or pledge all or any part of the property of the University to secure any such bonds, debentures and obligations;
- j) to provide for the retirement and superannuation of persons mentioned in clause a and b;
- k) to provide for payments by way of gratuities, retiring allowances, superannuation allowances, pensions, annuities, life insurance or health insurance, or any combination thereof payable to, in respect of, or for the benefit of the persons mentioned in clauses a and b for any class or classes thereof out of a fund or funds comprising contributions made by such persons or any class or classes thereof, or by the Board, or both, or otherwise;
- l) to expend such sums as may be required for the purposes of funds which are established for the payment of gratuities, retirement allowances, pensions, life insurance or health insurance for the benefit of the persons mentioned in clauses a and b;
- m) to make by-laws respecting the meetings of the Board, including the determination of a quorum necessary for the transaction of business, fixing fees to be paid by students for instruction, examinations, certificates, diplomas and any ancillary activities. 1965, c. 54, s. 12.

13. There shall be a Senate of the University composed of,

- a) the President, the Academic Vice-President, if any, the Librarian and the Registrar of the University;
- b) the deans of all faculties;
- c) the heads or chairmen of teaching departments; and
- d) such other members of the teaching staff elected or appointed in such manner as the Senate may determine. 1965, c. 54, s. 13.

14.
