

Artwork by Kayeleigh Larocque

Social Justice & Activism in Northwestern Ontario

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

LEANNA MARSHALL

As a maker of jingle dresses, Leanna Marshall tells stories of her ancestors & land, and stays in the intersection of where they meet to understand the essence of these relationships: connection, understanding, & healing. Leanna was the co-lead for Walking With Our Sisters when it came to Thunder Bay in 2014. She continues to be involved in the WWOS journey both locally and nationally .

Inquires or questions? Contact Steph or Katie at sjanwo2016@gmail.com

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

Register through Event Brite or visit our event page on Facebook to connect

Hosted by Social Justice Studies program, Women's and Gender Studies Student Association (WGSSA), and the Department of Women's Studies

DECEMBER 6TH

10-4PM

IN THE
BORA LASKIN
AUDITORIUM

Free to Attend
(food or clothing donations encouraged)

Lunch will be provided for registered attendees

Childcare will be provided, please indicate it upon registration