 Definition of Electives

Open Non-Business Elective

- Any course offered by a department or faculty other than the Faculty of Business Administration at Lakehead University

Open Business Non-Marketing Elective

- Any non-Marketing course offered by the Faculty of Business Administration.

Open Elective

- Any course, Business or non-Business, offered by Lakehead University
- As per University Regulations Section I(I), you cannot use a first-year course in the final year of your program

Repeating Courses

Lakehead University Regulations - Section V:

(h) Repeating Courses - A student is permitted to repeat a course only twice. All attempts will appear on the student's transcript. Only the last attempt will be included in the average, unless specified otherwise in the Faculty Regulations. Students do not have the option of choosing which attempt will be included.

Failed Year

Faculty of Business Administration Regulations:

4. A student is deemed to have failed the year if:

- (a) the student has failed more than two full courses or their equivalent; or
- (b) the student has failed more than one full course or equivalent with marks of less than 40%; or
- (c) the student attains an overall average of less than 50% in all courses; or
- (d) the student has a failure of more than one full course or its equivalent after special examinations have been given, whether the student writes them or not.

5. In a failed year, course credit is retained for only those courses in which a minimum mark of 60% has been attained.

6. A student having failed no more than one full course (or its equivalent) of the year's work after special examinations will be permitted to take courses in the succeeding year of the program.

7. A student who has failed a year is eligible to apply for re-admission to the University. A student will normally be granted the privilege of repeating one year only.

This Degree Checklist is for reference only. The ultimate decision on degree completion is based on the formal Degree Audit completed by Lakehead University.

Each Business student is responsible for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with and completion of program and degree requirements, and for the adherence to regulations and deadlines. Academic advising and guidance are available from the Undergraduate Chairs and the Faculty of Business Administration office, but it is the responsibility of the student to be familiar with program requirements and regulations in Lakehead University's Academic Calendar.
