

Aboriginal Liaison Adviser Position:

24 applicants have submitted their resumes for the Aboriginal Liaison Adviser's position for the Orillia campus. Six interviews will be taking place on April 16th and the candidates represent an excellent hiring pool with many holding advanced degrees and several years of culturally relevant work experience. A joint Aboriginal Initiatives/Student Affairs hiring panel has been struck with equal representation from both departments. Our aim is to have the position filled by mid May.