

REPORT TO THE OGIMAAWIN ABORIGINAL GOVERNANCE COUNCIL, LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY
FROM LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY SENATE

Reporting on Senate meeting held Friday, October 26, 2012.

- Welcome and Introduction of 2011/2012 Presidential Scholarship Recipients – Dr. Brian Stevenson
- Calendar Changes of Interest to Ogimaawin
 - Faculty of Law – A description of the process and criteria for admission into the Faculty of Law has been approved for the 2013 – 2014 academic year.
 - Required courses for the First Year Law (2013 – 2014) are finalized.
 - These “calendar changes” are not so much changes as additions. The Lakehead University calendar has not previously included courses for a law school.
- LUSU has recommended Student Representatives who will sit on Senate Standing Committees for the 2012 – 2013 academic year. Those recommendations were contained in a motion that was passed.
- Senate conducted an array of routine University business including reports from the Senate Academic Committee, the Senate Budget Committee, and various standing committees on calendar changes.
- President Stevenson reported on the Fall Harvest held at the Sweat Lodge Site. He also discussed the plans for the Gichi-Kindaasiwin Centre and how those might be affected by the resignation of former Ontario Premier Dalton McGuinty. He has assured Senate that while a slight effect may take place, plans will move forward. The recent cancellation of consultation with the Hon. Michael Gravelle was postponed for personal, not political, reasons, and has been rescheduled.

Submitted Tuesday, November 13, 2012

For Ogimaawin Aboriginal Governance Council Monday, November 19, 2012.

Sandra Wolf, Ph.D

Faculty of Education, Lakehead University