

REPORT TO THE OGIMAAWIN ABORIGINAL GOVERNANCE COUNCIL, LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY
FROM LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY SENATE

Reporting on Senate meeting held Friday, November 23, 2012.

- Calendar Changes of Interest to Ogimaawin
- Undergraduate Calendar
  - Faculty of Social Sciences & Humanities
  - Faculty of Education
- Graduate Calendar
  - Faculty of Engineering
    - New Program - MSc Civil Engineering (2013-2014)
- LUSU has recommended Student Representatives who will sit on Senate Standing Committees for the 2012 – 2013 academic year. Those recommendations were contained in a motion that was passed.
- Senate conducted an array of routine University business including reports from the Senate Academic Committee, the Senate Budget Committee, and various standing committees on calendar changes.
- President Stevenson and Lakehead University hosted a ‘Northern Policy Institute’ Breakfast for community members for consultation regarding the future of the Institute and immediate next steps.
- President Stevenson was also pleased to report that MacLean’s Magazine has ranked Lakehead University high in several important areas, including overall strength, student to faculty ratio, library holdings, for example.

Submitted Monday, January 14, 2013

For Ogimaawin Aboriginal Governance Council Monday, November 19, 2012.

Sandra Wolf, Ph.D

Faculty of Education, Lakehead University