

Connections that Change Your World

Paul Born Speaks on the Power of Community Conversations

FREE PUBLIC PRESENTATION

Wednesday, February 27, 2013

7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Bora Laskin Theatre, Lakehead University

Internationally recognized author and community builder Paul Born believes shaping our common future begins with the simple act of respectfully listening to and learning from each other.

Paul Born is a social entrepreneur, director of Tamarack - An Institute for Community Engagement, and co-founder of Vibrant Communities.

Through first hand stories, examples and practical advice, Paul Born will reveal how community conversations

- create new dialogue
- foster a sense of hope
- build true connections between people whose energies might otherwise go unharnessed

Anyone with an interest in building vibrant communities will benefit from attending this engaging presentation.

You may also be interested in . . .

COMMUNITY CONVERSATION TRAINING WORKSHOP

Learning to Mobilize Our Community through Strategic Conversations

Workshop participants will spend time in dialogue and explore at least four different types of conversation tools focused on questions that matter to Thunder Bay.

$75 registration fee includes light refreshments and a copy of Paul Born's book, "Community Conversations: Mobilizing the Ideas, Skills and Passion of Community Organizations, Governments, Business and People."

Thursday, February 28, 2013

8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Oliver Road Community Centre

Spaces are limited. To register please contact the Office of Aboriginal Initiatives at (807) 766-7219 or visit our website at aboriginalinitiatives.lakeheadu.ca/