

Raven Linklater

Raven Linklater is the Aboriginal Skills Employment & Training Strategy (ASETS) Coordinator at the Ontario Native Women's Association (ONWA). She went to Trent University for Native Management and Economic Development. However, her more recent academic accomplishment of Indigenous Women in Community Leadership hails from St. Francis Xavier University – COADY International Institute. She has accrued community based research skills, as well as, mobilization. Raven is well versed in Asset Based Community Development. For her entire academic and volunteer career, Raven has dedicated herself to increasing people's standard of living by refining individuals' skill sets and natural gifts. Raven Linklater is an Anishinabekwe from the Treaty #3 area and during the summertime, you can always find her at a powwow with her family.