

Ogimaawin-Aboriginal Governance Council Call for Board Representative Member-at-Large

The Ogimaawin-Aboriginal Governance Council (O-AGC) at Lakehead University is seeking an interested and qualified individual to serve as an Aboriginal Member-at-Large.

The ideal individual has an interest in Aboriginal education and training and is committed to promoting the advancement of Aboriginal students in a post-secondary environment. This volunteer position is a two-year renewable term with the member having a vote on the O-AGC and the opportunity to participate on sub-committees of the O-AGC and Lakehead University Senate. The O-AGC meets four to five times during the academic year.

The Lakehead University Ogimaawin-Aboriginal Governance Council represents the interests and concerns of the Aboriginal Community and serves as an official and formal decision-making body and channel for communications between Aboriginal peoples and Lakehead University, while respecting issues which affect Aboriginal post-secondary education.

For additional information on the O-AGC, please visit:
