

TREATY PAY SUMMER JOB FOR INDIGENOUS STUDENTS (SUMMER 2026)

▶ You are an Indigenous post-secondary student who is:

- studying in various fields such as Aboriginal/Indigenous studies, anthropology, business administration, history, human sciences, public administration, finance, accounting, office administration or social sciences
- able to travel frequently by land or air in all weather conditions to perform work related functions across the province, including in isolated and non-isolated communities

▶ You will have the opportunity to:

- travel to First Nation communities
- familiarize yourself with diverse First Nation cultures
- be actively involved in the Treaty relationship between Indigenous Peoples and the Crown

▶ What you will do:

- correspond with First Nations to obtain dates and times of treaty payment events
- liaise with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) to confirm attendance
- coordinate travel arrangements for treaty payment staff
- travel to First Nation communities to participate in treaty payment events
- distribution of Treaty Pay to First Nation members
- data entry and cash account reconciliation

Duration:

Full-time from May 15 to August 30, 2026 (these dates are approximate and may be extended or shortened depending on need).

Many hiring managers start reviewing applications before the job poster closes, therefore, we encourage you to apply early.

To apply visit our website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/public-service-commission/jobs/services/recruitment/students/federal-student-work-program.html>