FORTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION
FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

Arthur V. Mauro

CHANCELLOR

On January 1, 2010, Mr. Arthur V. Mauro, prominent Canadian businessman and philanthropist, began his term as Lakehead University's seventh Chancellor. Mr. Mauro says that he has a tremendous sense of gratitude to have been asked to take on this role in the city where he was born and raised. "It is one of my regrets that Lakehead University did not exist when I finished secondary school. I would have attended."

Arthur Mauro was born in Thunder Bay, Ontario. He went to Winnipeg in 1946 to study at St. Paul's College, a Catholic College in the Jesuit tradition. He then studied law at the University of Manitoba and was called to the Bar of Manitoba in 1953. Until 1969 he practiced law, specializing in transportation and communication law.

Mr. Mauro has had an impressive business career. In 1967, he was appointed Chairman of the Royal Commission on Northern Transportation, and in 1969 became a senior executive with Great Northern Capital Corporation. From 1972 to 1976, he was President and Chief Executive Officer of Transair Limited, and joined the Investors Group in 1976 to become its President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman.

In 1987, he was made a Member of the Order of Canada and was later promoted to Officer in 1992. He received an Honorary Doctor of Laws from the University of Manitoba in 1987 and an Honorary Doctor of Commerce from Lakehead University in 1997. In 2004, he was awarded the Order of Manitoba for his contributions to the economic, civic and cultural life of Manitoba. At present, Mr. Mauro is Chair of the Board of Directors of the Winnipeg Airports Authority Inc.

Since his student days, Arthur Mauro has actively supported the University of Manitoba, as a lecturer and then as Chancellor from 1991 to 2000. In September 2001, he made a major contribution to St. Paul's College at the University of Manitoba to establish the Arthur V. Mauro Centre for Peace and Justice, dedicated to the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution, global citizenship, peace, and social justice through research, education, and outreach.

Although Mr. Mauro has long since left the Lakehead, he has never forgotten his roots. He has fond memories of growing up on Secord Street in Port Arthur, being a student at Port Arthur Collegiate Institute, and graduating from St. Patrick's High School. His commitment to Thunder Bay and to Lakehead University was demonstrated in 2005, when he matched donations made to the Advanced Technology & Academic Centre (ATAC) capital campaign by members of the local Italian community.

The Chancellor's primary responsibilities include fostering the mission, vision, and values of Lakehead University and building bridges between the University and its stakeholders as well as the broader public locally, nationally, and internationally. "I am pleased to serve as Lakehead's Chancellor and look forward to contributing to its institutional success over the next three years," says Arthur Mauro. "As a longstanding member of the Thunder Bay community, I am proud not only to support Lakehead in this capacity but also to represent its character and the excellence it embodies."

Brian J. R. Stevenson

PRESIDENT & VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dr. Brian Stevenson took office as president of Lakehead University in August 2010.

Prior to taking the helm at Lakehead, he served the University of Winnipeg as provost and vice-president (academic) from 2006 to 2010, where he was also a professor in the Faculty of Business and Economics. During his tenure at U Winnipeg, Dr. Stevenson was involved in a significant re-invention and renewal of many aspects of the University including the establishment of a new Faculty of Business and Economics, a new Academic Plan, new graduate programs, the promotion of internationalization, and a new enrolment strategy.

Throughout his career, Dr. Stevenson has built a stellar record of leadership in academia and government; he has held senior positions at a number of high-profile organizations and universities including the federal government in Ottawa, the University of Alberta, and the Organization of American States in Washington. While at the University of Alberta, he excelled at building the institution's profile around the world. In only five years he was instrumental in increasing international enrolment dramatically and was also responsible for establishing an international residence. Dr. Stevenson received his BA (Honours) and MA from the University of Victoria, and holds a doctorate from Queen's University. He first taught at the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM), and later at the University of Alberta where he also served as vice-provost and associate vice-president. He later served as senior policy advisor to the Canadian Ministers of International Trade and Foreign Affairs and was a public policy scholar at the Woodrow Wilson Center for International Scholars.

Recognized as a specialist in international relations and foreign policy, Dr. Stevenson has authored and/or co-edited a number of books and articles on Canadian politics, foreign policy, Canada-Mexico relations, Canadian security in Latin America, and the relationship between the Organization of American States and Canada. He has authored and presented dozens of conference papers in Canada, the United States, and Latin America, and has made contributions as a board member of the Canadian Council for the Americas and the Canadian Foundation for the Americas.

Dr. Stevenson is a member of the Advisory Council of Fulbright Canada's Network on North American Studies in Canada (NNASC) and the Editorial Board of Foreign Affairs (Latinoamérica). In addition to being a professor in the Faculty of Business Administration at Lakehead University, he currently serves as vice-chair of the Board of Directors for the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM).

Dr. Stevenson is also a community member of Thunder Bay's Community Economic Development Commission.

Lloyd Dennis

Posthumously

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Lloyd Dennis transformed education in Ontario with the reforms that he and his fellow members of the Committee on Aims and Objectives of Education in Ontario proposed in the 1968 Living and Learning report (also known as the Hall-Dennis Report). This now famous report criticized pedagogy based on rote learning and corporal punishment and advocated student-centred and inquiry-based learning. Dennis was recognized in 1971 with an Order of Canada and in 2000 with an Order of Ontario for his outstanding contributions to Canadian education.

A distinguished Canadian and Orillia resident, Dennis had a profound impact on Ontario education. Growing up in Muskoka, Dennis left school to work at an early age and returned following the war to complete his high school diploma, teacher certification and went on to earn two degrees from the University of Toronto.

Dennis held a variety of positions in education including teacher, principal, and consultant. In 1965, he served as an advisor to the Deputy Minister of Education and it was during this time that he and Supreme Court Justice Emmett Hall co-authored the Living and Learning, (Hall-Dennis) report.

Dennis was a prolific writer and authored several books including: an autobiography, The Learning Circus; his memoirs, Marching Orders; as well as Treasure Chest of Muskoka Memories, about growing up in poverty in rural Ontario.

Prior to his death in March 2012 at the age of 88, Dennis was an enthusiastic proponent for the establishment and growth of Lakehead University's Orillia campus. As recently as January of this year, Dennis spoke to concurrent education students at the campus. He gave a presentation that stressed the importance of an education that is directed to meet the needs of the individual. He was one of the earliest proponents for inquiry-based learning and for lifelong learning, and in many ways, was the pedagogical architect of the Orillia campus.

In 2009, Lakehead honoured Dennis with its second Civitas Award for his contribution to education and commitment to the development of the Orillia campus.

In 2011, Lakehead created the Lloyd Dennis Award for outstanding citizenship, awarded annually to a full time student at the Orillia campus.

Lakehead University has benefitted enormously from Dennis' contributions to education in Canada, as well as from his commitment and support to the Orillia campus. He was a mentor, friend and valued counsel.

Anderson Charters

CIVITAS AWARD

A driving force behind the establishment of Lakehead University in Orillia, Anderson Charters had a vision for a university campus in Orillia and over a decade ago began his quest to realize this vision.

In 2002, Charters formed the Orillia University Committee by bringing together a dedicated group of citizens who shared his vision for a university in Orillia. After exploring options with leaders from Ontario universities, the group of five joined members of Orillia City Council to establish the Orillia University Mayor's Task Force. It was Charters' encouragement that compelled (former) Mayor of Orillia, Ron Stevens, to establish the Task Force to attract a major Ontario university to Orillia. These actions, along with Charters' persistence and leadership, set the stage for the historic meeting in 2004 with Dr. Fred Gilbert, then president of Lakehead University. In September of 2006, less than two years later, Lakehead University Orillia welcomed its first students at Heritage Place in downtown Orillia.

As chair of the Orillia University Committee and vice-chair of the Orillia University Mayor's Task Force, Charters' commitment and vision for a university campus in Simcoe County was unwavering. As a result of his exceptional leadership in this initiative, Orillia's daily newspaper, The Packet & Times, selected Anderson Charters as Orillia's Citizen of the Year in 2005.

Charters' unrelenting determination, energy and leadership to bring a university to Simcoe County is one of the key reasons for Lakehead University's existence in Orillia today. His pursuit was extremely successful and worthy of celebration and commemoration.

Charters continues to be an active member of the Lakehead University community. He currently chairs the Student Experience Committee of the Orillia Campus Advisory Committee. This Student Experience Committee is responsible for supporting the growth and development of student services, including sports, recreation, arts and cultural opportunities. Over the past two years, the group has been instrumental in establishing curling and rowing as Lakehead Orillia's first two varsity sports.

Charters lives in Orillia with his wife Susan, where they raised four children. A former reporter for the Financial Post, Anderson was the publisher of a local community newspaper for many years. He is presently the co-owner and publisher of the Canadian Donor's Guide, CharityCan, and the Canadian Who's Who directory.
