WELCOME TO LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY'S 52ND CONVOCATION CELEBRATION!

Convocation is a traditional ceremony during which the University officially grants the degrees and diplomas earned by its students. The word “convocation” means “calling together.” It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire University community.

Academic Regalia

On Convocation Day, University members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic “dress” or “regalia,” had its origins in the medieval European universities. The regalia were devised to distinguish academic persons as doctors, licentiates, masters, and bachelors.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown, and in some cases the special hat worn by an individual are determined by the style of the university where he or she receives a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of the universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and several other nations of the world are worn at Lakehead University today.

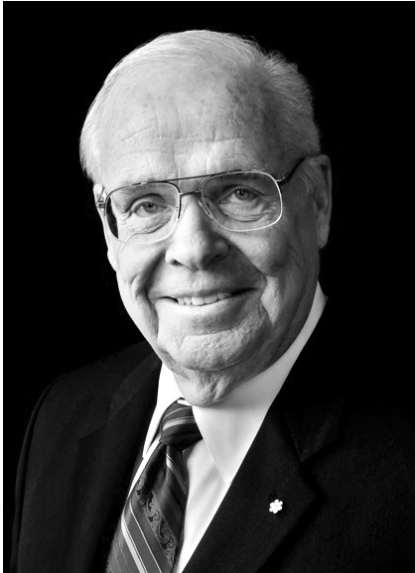

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the University – the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President and Vice-Chancellor and the Chair of the Board of Governors – are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates.

The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the University's academic requirements (three, four, five, six or seven years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired (i.e. white for Arts, gold for Science, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing, etc).

The Mace

During the processional and the recessional, the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the University's authority. This mace was given to the University by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the University's motto “Ad augusta per angusta”, Achievement through Effort.

GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

To Lakehead University's Class of 2016,

I am delighted to welcome you and your family and friends to celebrate your achievement at one of Canada's most exceptional universities.

You have come a long way and passed many tests for which you should be very proud. Graduating from university is a milestone you will remember forever, but it's more than that.

A university degree can change your life – that is probably the reason you dedicated yourself to the task.

Thank you for choosing Lakehead University and a special thank you to your supporters for understanding when you had to spend time on your school work.

Congratulations on your success and I wish you the best of luck.

Sincerely,

Dr. Derek H. Burney, O.C.
Chancellor
Lakehead University

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Dear Lakehead University Graduates,

Convocation is a day you will remember for the rest of your life.

It is a chance to celebrate your accomplishments with the people who supported you throughout this journey, and to look ahead to your future goals and plans.

Today is not just about walking across the stage to accept your degree – this is a celebration of your hard work. Now you must choose how to apply the knowledge and skills gained from your time at Lakehead University.

A Lakehead University education has helped shape you to become the person you are now.

I congratulate you on this exceptional achievement and thank you for choosing Lakehead. You are one of more than 55,000 alumni around the world who have become exceptional and unconventional through your dedication at Lakehead.

A special thank you must also go to the Lakehead University professors who assisted you along the way.

Congratulations and best of luck in your future endeavours,

Dr. Brian J.R. Stevenson
President & Vice-Chancellor
Lakehead University

Honorary DEGREES

The University confers “honorary” degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred upon an individual by the University. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative achievements or distinguished public service to the country or region. They are awarded to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body a deserving special honour.

At Convocation, the degree is awarded honoris causa, or “for the sake of honour”. A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree.

This year, Lakehead University is proud to honour the following exceptional individual:

BONNIE M. PATTERSON Doctor of Commerce

Bonnie Patterson is a champion of higher education and a role model for women in leadership. She has been recognized for a series of “firsts” in a highly successful career in the university sector that spans four decades.

As the first in her family to go to university, Bonnie began to carve her own path as a teenager. She obtained a B.A. and M.L.S. from Western University in London, Ontario, where she subsequently joined the faculty and thrived in the academic environment. After joining Ryerson University (then Ryerson Polytechnic Institute), she quickly moved into academic administration chairing the School of Administration and Information Management, serving as Special Advisor to the President during Ryerson's transformation to full university status, and went on to become the first woman Dean of Business in Canada.

Bonnie's impact continued to grow when she was named the first woman President of the Council of Ontario Universities (COU) in 1995, followed by an appointment as the first woman President & Vice-Chancellor of Trent University in 1998, a position she held for 11 years before returning to serve at the request of Ontario's university presidents as President & CEO of COU for an additional six years. While President at Trent, she was the first woman to Chair the Board of Universities Canada (then known as the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada).

Throughout her career, Bonnie has spearheaded several international education initiatives including working with the Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU) as an International Expert to develop a composite model for benchmarking university sustainability.

Lakehead University CIVITAS AWARD

This year, Lakehead University honours:

GARFIELD DUNLOP

As the Member of Provincial Parliament (MPP) for Simcoe North from 1999 to 2015, Garfield has been an outstanding advocate for the communities in his riding, and for Lakehead University's Orillia campus since it was first proposed in 2003.

A long-serving and popular Coldwater-based politician, Garfield began his career in politics in 1980 when he was elected Councillor for the Village of Coldwater. From 1982 until 1994, he was Reeve of the village. In 1994, after the County of Simcoe was restructured, Garfield was elected Deputy Mayor of the Township of Severn, where he served until the 1999 provincial election. He was Warden of Simcoe County in 1998. In his role as an MPP, Garfield served as Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Education and Critic for the Ministries of Skilled Trades and Apprenticeship Reform, Education, and Training, Colleges and Universities.

Garfield was instrumental in the founding of Lakehead's Orillia campus. His expertise and determination was critical in helping Lakehead's senior administration successfully open the Orillia campus in 2006. His timely support has been vital to the growth of the campus – whether it was offering advice on local issues, supporting student projects, working to establish lobby days as an annual event at Queen's Park, or providing guidance on special government projects and opportunities. His exceptional leadership, friendship, and support have made him a true anchor of Lakehead University's Orillia campus.

Garfield and his wife Jane, a councilor in Severn Township, continue to live and work in the community and have two grown children and three granddaughters.

Our Mission

To be recognized as an innovative comprehensive university that provides an education that is about how to think, not what to think.

We Believe....

We believe our students make Lakehead University different.

We believe that our students want an innovative comprehensive university where they have the highest chance of success.

We believe that our students have the passion and drive to realize their dreams and succeed.

We believe that our students want the intellectual freedom to pursue the unconventional.

We believe in the diversity that comes from our students of many cultures and many nations.

We believe that our students are passionate about both their own individuality and their communities.

We believe in our students.
