

Collecting hand samples and measuring structures in the field on a rainy day. This outcrop is of the Sabaskong Batholith in the Western Wabigoon Subprovince. Examples of alteration and structure within this outcrop are shown in the bottom 3 pictures. Dana Campbell (left – sampling), Bailey Drover (right – taking measurements)

A Study of the Structure and Hydrothermal Alteration of Granitic Plutons in the Wabigoon Subprovince

MSc. Geology Candidate: Bailey Drover

Supervised by: Dr. Zurevinski and Dr. Hill

Potassic alteration in the Sabaskong Batholith – Western Wabigoon Subprovince

Narrow shear zone within the Sabaskong Batholith - Western Wabigoon Subprovince

Chlorite-coated fault with slickenlines in the Sabaskong Batholith – Western Wabigoon Subprovince