Summary and Consents:

This form is designed to provide potential applicants with an unofficial pre-assessment for their admissibility to Lakehead University. An official offer from Lakehead University can only be provided upon receipt of an official application to the university. All supporting documentation (i.e. transcripts) must be submitted with this request. Requests without all supporting documentation will not be processed. Due to the nature of the request, pre-assessments are completed on a first-come, first-served basis, and can take several weeks to process. After submitting this request, a representative of Lakehead University will be reviewing all documents provided to conduct an unofficial assessment on your admissibility to Lakehead University. By signing below, you understand and agree to the terms above.
