

AZA Wiji Community Champion, Nokiiwin Tribal Council, in partnership with EPID@Work Research Institute, Lakehead University

Category: Research Staff

Administrative/ Staff Positions - Thunder Bay Campus

Department: EPID@Work Research Institute

Application Deadline: Open until filled, will start reviewing applications February 22, 2021

Start date: April 1, 2021

AZA Wiji Community Champion
Nokiiwin Tribal Council, in partnership with EPID@Work Research Institute, Lakehead University
Thunder Bay Campus

8 months - part-time position

We are looking for a highly motivated individual to promote a workplace mental health peer support application within the community. Preference will be given to a community Elder.

Funding for this position is made available through the Canadian Institutes for Health Research. This position is available under the leadership of Dr. Vicki Kristman, Director, Enhancing the Prevention of Injury and Disability (EPID) @ Work Research Institute, and in association with the Nokiiwin Tribal Council.

Key accountabilities:

- Work collaboratively with the project team (EPID@Work scientific members and the Nokiiwin Tribal Council) team
- Engage in training on how to use the Wiji Workplace Mental Health Peer Support application
- Promote the Wiji Workplace Mental Health Peer Support application
- Support community members with mitigating issues in the use of the Wiji application
- Promote and support community members in research survey completion

Qualifications:

- Community Elder preferred
- Knowledge in basic mental health concepts
- Trained as a Nokiiwin Tribal Council Spirit Builder
- Lives in community

Candidates should send their resume, a one-page cover letter outlining their interest to:

Dr. Vicki Kristman
EPID@Work Research Institute
Lakehead University
955 Oliver Road
Thunder Bay, ON
P7B 5E1
Email: epid.hbsc@lakeheadu.ca

Review of applications will begin on February 22, 2021 and will continue until the position is filled.

Lakehead University is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive environment and welcomes applications from all qualified individuals including women, racialized persons, Indigenous people, persons with disabilities and other equity-seeking groups. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. This is in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements.

We appreciate your interest; however, only those selected for an interview will be notified. Lakehead University is committed to supporting an accessible environment. Applicants requiring accommodation during the interview process should contact the Office of Human Resources at (807) 343-8334 or human.resources@lakeheadu.ca to make appropriate arrangements.