Rationale Philosophy Changes (2013-2014) referred at 19October, 2012 Senate and approved at 14May2013 Senate meeting. Split PHIL 1100 into two half-courses—associated program changes for HBA.INDIPHIL. In response to our recent Departmental Review, we are removing required courses and empowering students to choose. That said, we are a small department and offer only a limited number of courses across the four years. So effectively students are streamed into the right courses by our limited offerings in any case -- but there is wriggle room for choice, which makes it easier for us as well to manage. In the past missed requirements were routinely offered as unpaid overload. Erasing specific requirements will solve this hr problem.
