What is the pedagogical rationale for this request? Why are you submitting this request?:	The rationale behind proposing this course is as follows:1. The course was already offered and taught at Orillia by Dr. Islam under special topics.2. There was a huge enrolment (52 students) in the course in the Fall 2015 at Orillia3. Students from Criminology will also enrol for this course.4. There is huge interest on this topic among the students of other disciplines as well.5. There is no budgetary constraint for this course since this could be taught by a regular full time faculty as part of his regular load. For example, is this change required for accreditation?

Learning Outcomes:	1. This course will enhance the knowledge of the students on the theories and nature of punishments that exist throughout the world. 2. Students will have comprehensive ideas of Prison Industrial complex system in the world and in Canada as well. 3. Students will know the politics and economics behind mass incarceration and the exploitation of the prisoners as slaves. 4. This course will enable the students to understand the racial, gender and class differences in the prisons and the variations of punishments imposed on the different type of prisoners. 5. Students majoring in Criminology and Political science will be able to apply their knowledge in their careers.
