Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?:	In keeping with the Department of History's revamping of its programs and curriculum in response to our most recent undergraduate program review and with the university's new Academic Plan (and the department's own five-year plan), this course is being created following the discontinuation of the full-year credits History 2301, 2501, and a half year course 2513. It replaces the first half of 2301 and 2501 and 2513 which contained a range of content duplication. It also ensures that students progressing through our curriculum have a much broader prerequisite background for the accompanying half-courses being calendared. It also responds to resource issues created due to the loss and reappointment of faculty in the past year.

Associated Changes - List all other requests that are associate with this change (enter request number or title):	In delisting the History 2510, the Indigenous Content Requirement is being met by the inclusion of 0.5 FCE chosen from the list of Type E courses, Request
