1.	New Version of a Course	Sound Production and Post-Production
----	-------------------------	--------------------------------------

Justification

The prerequisite (MDST 2650) is being deleted from the calendar since we do not have the resources to offer all of our second-year courses regularly. Without the prerequisite, this course needs to be less specialized, focused on sound production more generally, rather than just on film and video. Removing the prerequisite will encourage a variety of students to take this course.
