Rationale: Why are you submitting this request?:	The portfolio requirement was an original component of the admissions process for the Media Studies program in Orillia. For a variety of reasons, this requirement was removed beginning in 2014/15. But feedback from students at recruiting events and from recruiters--particularly at international levels--indicates widespread support for the portfolio as part of the application process. It would be beneficial, therefore, to reinstate the portfolio requirement as part of the admissions process for the Media Studies program.
