What is the pedagogical rationale for this request? Why are you submitting this request?:	This course has been frequently offered as a Special Topics course in the Criminology Program with strong enrolment numbers. (118 students in 2016/17). In addition, we are currently restructuring the Criminology Program, emphasizing a practitioner focus, highlighting policing, prosecution and corrections authorities, procedures and institutions. Practice oriented courses, particularly in the area of applied criminology such as criminal profiling, help set Lakehead University's Criminology Program apart from other criminology offerings at the undergraduate level in Ontario. The course is being designated as fourth year to build on the third year general introduction to policing, with an advanced applied focus on profiling. A prerequisite is being imposed to ensure knowledge in criminology. Updating pre-requisites that are being made across the Criminology program and adding a Type C designation to reflect the course content. For example, is this change required for accreditation?
