Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?: ~~Calendar changes effective September 2015 made it (theoretically) possible to earn an HBABED (Philosophy) degree without taking any fourth-year courses in Philosophy. These changes will require one and one half FCE in Philosophy at the fourth-year level. These changes are to make the Philosophy component of this program consistent with other Philosophy degree programs in having Philosophy 2614 as a required course in second year and Philosophy 3615 as required in third year. These courses are core history of philosophy courses that are central to the Philosophy degree.~~
