Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?: ~~In~~ With the last revision of introduction of 1 FCE of required INTD courses in previous changes to the degree, starting Sept. 2022, students are required to complete a "core disciplinary course" within at least one of their disciplines. The list of eligible courses was incomplete as it did not include at least one course for each discipline. The new list includes at least one course for each discipline. Additionally, courses on this list were previously restricted to 2nd year "methodological" courses. This restriction was dropped starting 2022-23 and as a consequence contributing departments were invited to revise the course(s) they contribute to this list. Several departments recommended different or additional courses, which appear on the revised list it may be difficult for students to take two FCEs of courses from the concentration list in their second year. As a result, the recommendation has been changed to 1 FCE of such courses at the second year, with a note added after the fourth year to take 1 FCE of course list courses. Additionally, the HBASC and BASC4 degrees were combined into one calendar entry in the last calendar, but the description of the BASC4 did not reflect changes that were made the HBASC. The BASC4 should be identical to the HBASC except for the lower GPA requirement. Consequently, the BASC4 requirements were corrected.

Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?: ~~In~~ With the last revision of introduction of 1 FCE of required INTD courses in previous changes to the degree, ~~starting Sept. 2022, students are required to complete a "core disciplinary course" within at least one of their~~

~~disciplines. The list of eligible courses was incomplete as it did not include at least one course for each discipline. The new list includes at least one course for each discipline. Additionally, courses on this list were previously restricted to 2nd year "methodological" courses. This restriction was dropped starting 2022-23 and as a consequence contributing departments were invited to revise the course(s) they contribute to this list. Several departments recommended different or additional courses, which appear on the revised list it may be difficult for students to take two FCEs of courses from the concentration list in their second year. As a result, the recommendation has been changed to 1 FCE of such courses at the second year, with a note added after the fourth year to take 1 FCE of course list courses. Additionally, the HBASC and BASC4 degrees were combined into one calendar entry in the last calendar, but the description of the BASC4 did not reflect changes that were made the HBASC. The BASC4 should be identical to the HBASC except for the lower GPA requirement. Consequently, the BASC4 requirements were corrected.~~
