COURSE DETAILS

REMOVE A COURSE FROM CALENDAR FORM – The following is information that is displayed in the University Calendar

You may remove this course from the University Calendar, it will sit dormant in Curriculum Navigator and is available to be put back into the calendar anytime.

Course Code: French 3603

Title of Course: French Canadian Literature

Course Description: An introduction to major authors of the French-Canadian canon, through the reading and analysis of texts by iconic novelists, poets, playwrights and essayists. Structured around the history, politics, and literary developments of various French-speaking communities of Canada, such as Quebec, Ontario, Acadia, and the West. Particular attention will also be paid to the experiences of specific minority groups within the French-Canadian community—most notably those of women and Indigenous communities, whose intersectional experiences may differ from those of the Allocthones.

Is this a required course, or an elective?: Elective

Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?: Several years ago, enrolment services were in favor of offering more 0.5FCE in order to offer more flexibility to students in their course schedule therefore the Department of Languages offered two 0.5FCEs for Introductory Italian (ITAL 1010 'Italian: Level I' and ITAL 1030 'Italian: Level II'). The Department of Languages notices however that the first half of the course is full at capacity (average of 24 students) but the second half doesn't attract as many students. Furthermore, learning the basic of a language needs at least a full academic year therefore this course must be offered as a full credit.

Calendar Start Term. : 2016–17

Calendar End Term. When is the last calendar year this should be displayed?: 2026–27

Academic Level: Undergraduate

Is this a required course, or an elective?: Elective

Pedagogical rationale for this proposal. Why are you submitting this request?: Introductory Mandarin has been offered for 2 consecutive years with success under the title ‘‘Language 0500 Special Topics: Introduction to a Selected Language’’. The Department now wants to offer it as a course with its own denomination. With more than 955 million speakers, Mandarin claims the top spot as the world’s most common language – and one that often requires professional translation services. At LU, it could be very useful for students studying business or for those in Education willing to do their placement in China and later teaching over there.
