Budgetary Considerations

Student Enrolment

unlikely

Student Enrolment Other Units

Yes. It is expected that this proposed change will increase enrollment as it makes available the first Concurrent Education program at Orillia with a strong focus on science and environmental studies.

Additional Resources

No. There are no new courses being suggested as part of this proposal.

Teaching Loads

It is unlikely that the proposed changes will affect teaching loads in the faculty/department, as no new courses are suggested as part of this proposal. It is expected that enrollment in ENSU courses will increase with this change.

TeachingSupport Services

There is no expected impact on demand for teaching support services.

Outside Support

no
