on

February 01, 2018

2:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

The Minister of Finance will be hosting pre-budget consultations with individuals and organizations throughout the province as part of the government's ongoing dialogue with the citizens of Ontario.

In particular, the Minister of Finance is interested in hearing Ontarians' views regarding what more the government can do to create jobs and grow the economy, while eliminating the deficit.

This is your opportunity to share your views and ideas, and speak directly with the Minister of Finance about the upcoming 2018 Ontario Budget. Each person/organization will be allotted three minutes to speak.

Your views are valued, especially in your area of expertise, Water Resource Management.
