

LEST WE FORGET LEST WE FORGET LEST WE FORGET LEST WE FORGET

6th Annual Military Symposium

Post Combat and Recognition

25 November 2017

O’Kelly Armoury (317 Park Avenue)
0830 to 1600

Free and Open to the Public

Lakehead
UNIVERSITY

Department of History

C I C

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL
CONSEIL INTERNATIONAL DU CANADA

Thunder Bay Branch | Section Thunder Bay

ITINERARY

25 November – Parade Square

0830            Coffee
Provided courtesy of Rose N Crantz Roasting Co.

0845            Welcome

0900            KEYNOTE

Canada’s Afghanistan Experience and the Coming of age of the Canadian Honours System

Dr. Christopher McCreery, MVO, FRCGS, FRHSC

1000            Break and Book Signings
Copies of recent books published by the presenters will be available at the symposium. Coffee provided courtesy of Rose N Crantz Roasting Co.

1030            Trauma in the Canadian Military from 1914-2014: A Brief Overview
Adam Montgomery (Independent Scholar)

1115            Documenting the Battlefields after World War I: The Art of Canadian Mary Riter Hamilton (1868-1954)
Sarah McKinnon (former Vice-President, Academic at OCAD University, and a former Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs at the School of the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston)

1200            Lunch Break

1300            Identity Hunters: The Identification of “Missing in Action” Soldiers
Janet Roy (Forensic Genealogist)

1345            Employment Preferences and Seniority Rights for Canadian World War II Veterans
Michael Stevenson (Lakehead University)

1430            Break
Coffee provided courtesy of Rose N Crantz Roasting Co.

1440            An Introduction to Naval Project Management
Thomas Sliming (Royal Canadian Navy)

1525            Tiered Readiness Program
Jaime Stohl (Royal Canadian Navy)

1610            Closing Remarks

For more information contact Dr. Michel S. Beaulieu at (807) 343-8341 / michel.beaulieu@lakeheadu.ca or visit <https://www.lakeheadu.ca/academics/departments/history/annual-military-symposium>

This annual symposium on matters relating to the Canadian Forces is a joint initiative between Lakehead University’s Department of History, the Thunder Bay Branch of the Canadian International Council, HMCS Griffon, and the Lake Superior Scottish Regiment. Additional partners included the Lakehead University Alumni Bookstore, Northwestern Ontario Archivists’ Association, Ontario Historical Society, Thunder Bay Historical Museum Society, Thunder Bay Military Museum, Rose N’ Crantz Roasting Company, and the Thunder Bay Public Library.