Communications Specialist Job Posting Enhancing the Prevention of Injury & Disability (EPID)@Work Research Institute

Department: EPID@Work Research Institute

Number of Positions: 1

Term: 18 Month Contract

Start Date: June 2024

Lakehead University, Thunder Bay Campus, invites applications for a Communications Specialist with the EPID@Work Research Institute. This position is a limited term position for 18-months.

The EPID@Work Research Institute is seeking a qualified candidate for the role of Communications Specialist to be responsible for developing, executing, and maintaining internal and external knowledge mobilization communications. These communications will be from a stakeholder, research, and brand perspective, and will be in alignment with the EPID@Work strategic goals and knowledge mobilization best practices.

The Communications Specialist will use persuasive writing and research skills to develop knowledge content and products for a wide variety of communication platforms including print, social/digital media, websites, events, conferences, and reports. The Communications Specialist will possess a strategic and creative mindset, paired with exceptional written and oral communications skills and meticulous attention to detail. Ability to work and handle all knowledge management and partnership duties in a confidential and diplomatic manner is essential. Experience with social media management and graphic design software (e.g. Adobe Illustrator, Canva, etc.) is considered an asset. Public relations and outreach are other important aspects of this position; the ideal candidate will possess strong networking and public speaking skills.

The candidate will have post-secondary education, preferably in communications, journalism, or public relations, or equivalent combined with a minimum of two years' experience in communications. They will have experience writing and creating for all media platforms.

Interested applicants are invited to submit a single PDF document containing a cover letter, resume, and the contact information of three professional references to:
