

What does a student with a disability look like?

Fact:

Nearly 1 in 5 Canadians between the age of 15 and 64 reported having a disability (Statistics Canada 2017)

Did you know?

At Lakehead University 93% of students who registered with Student Accessibility Services had a non-visible disability (2018/2019).

You might be surprised...

* For questions regarding a disability/medical condition not listed below, contact SAS at 807-343-8047 or sas@lakeheadu.ca. *

Acquired Brain Injury	Chemical Sensitivities	Grave's Disease	Parkinson's Disease
ADD/ADHD	Chronic Fatigue Syndrome	Hard of Hearing	Personality Disorders
Adjustment Disorders	Chronic Pain Syndrome	Hepatitis	Pervasive Development Disorders
AIDS/HIV	Colitis	Irritable Bowel Syndrome	Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder
Anxiety Disorders	Crohn's Disease	Kidney Disease	Respiratory Conditions
Arthritis & Rheumatic Disorders	Cystic Fibrosis	Knee Injuries	Schizophrenia
Autism	Deaf	Learning Disabilities	Seizure Disorders
Back Pain	Depression	Low Vision	Spina Bifida
Bi-Polar Disorder	Diabetes Mellitus	Migraine	Spinal Cord Injuries
Blind	Eating Disorders	Mood Disorders	Surgery
Blood Disorders	Environmental Sensitivities	Multiple Sclerosis	Temporary Illness
Cancers	Facial Nerve Disorder	Muscular Dystrophy	Tendonitis
Carpal Tunnel Syndrome	Fibromyalgia	Organ Transplant	Terminal Illness
Cerebral Palsy	Fractures	Osteoporosis	Tourette's Syndrome