Required Texts (available at Lakehead University Bookstore)

1) Brooks, Carolyn & Bernard Schissel. 2015. Marginality and Condemnation: an Introduction to Critical Criminology (3rd Ed.). Halifax: Fernwood Publishing.

2) Chahal, Walid (Compilation). 2017. Crime and Inequality: Readings for Introduction to Criminology. Halifax: Fernwood Publishing.

Course Focus

In this course, we will critically examine the social construction of criminal law and its application, and the social causes of crime and delinquency by relying on several analytical perspectives. Our main focus, however, will be on perspectives that incorporate gender, class and ethnic relations of power and resistance and their socio-economic, political and historical links.

Learning Outcomes

Upon the successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

- (1) assess a multiplicity of perspectives on the social causes and nature of crime;
- (2) evaluate theoretical explanations of crime causation;
- (3) critically appraise the role of law, and other institutional arrangements in society;
- (4) grasp the nature and distribution of crime and deviance;
- (5) analyze specific types of crime in Canada, including conventional crime, corporate and political crime;
- (6) appraise the policies and programs that are aimed at combating crime and deviance in society

Course Requirements

There are four (3) requirements for this course.

- 2. Four Short Tests: Oct. 20th, Nov. 17, Feb. 9th and March 30th (4 @ 10% each)......40% The tests consist of multiple-choice and short-answer questions. The tests cover all class work, my PowerPoint presentations, and reading material to date. It is not the instructor's aim to reproduce the same material that is covered in the readings. My PowerPoint presentations, and discussions will complement, expand, and shed more light on the concepts, theories and issues that are covered in the texts.

To do well in this course, you must do the work on a weekly basis. You must contribute to the discussions in a thoughtful way. You must also critically reflect on the assigned readings and my PowerPoint presentations by making use of the concepts, theories and other material covered in class and clearly show that in your response papers and posts.

PLEASE NOTE

- The response papers must be formatted according to the ASA (American Sociological Association) Style Guide for referencing and citations. For more information, see the following website: http://www.calstatela.edu/library/guides/3asa.pdf https://www.lakeheadu.ca/sites/default/files/uploads/92/ASA_Style_4th_ed_0.pdf
- There is a penalty for response papers handed in late (2% per day).
- Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will be dealt with according to the University regulations. See for more details, Lakehead University New Student Code of Conduct: Academic Integrity: https://teachingcommons.lakeheadu.ca/index.php/new-student-code-conduct-academic-integrity

Further, the student will be given additional information concerning course topics, course requirements, evaluation procedures and any other relevant material on Sept 8th.
